IMPORTANCE OF TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS

Results of Mayoralty Contests Will Foreshadow Outcome of State Campaigns Next Fall.

POLITICIANS' KEEN INTEREST.

Hanna's Seat in the Senate May Depend Largely on Republican Success in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Toledo and Columbus.

The Republic Bureau, 14th St. and Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, April 5.—Republican and Democratic politicians in Washington are watching with keenest interest the spring municipal elections in the West and the preliminaries of some important State campaigns of the coming fall, all looking for significant results as bearing on the national contest next year.

Iowa will elect a successor to Governor Cummins and a new Legislature, which will determine whether Senator Hanna shall have another term; Maryland also a Governor and a Legislature, whose members have the choice of a United States Senator; Kentucky, Rhode Island and Massachusetts also choose practically entire quotas of State officers.

Most of these elections have significance beyond State boundaries and will be hotly contested. First, perhaps, is the State election in Ohio, a staunch Republican State, but often invaded by the Democrats until recent years. The earnestness with which the Buckeye campaign will be fought has been forecasted in the strife over mayoralty elections to be held Tuesday in the principal cities.

The choice of Mayors in Columbus, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Toledo may not be altogether indicative of Republican and Democratic strength there, but two of the Democratic candidates, Mr. Ingalls in Cincinnati, and Mr. Johnson in Cleveland, promise to be conspicuous figures in the gubernatorial race this fall.

Should Democratic Mayors be elected in Cleveland and Cincinnati, it would certainly put the friends of Senator Hanna on their mettle all during this summer and fall.
Turk revisionists who have recently been rebuffed by President Roosevelt and Secretary Root in public utterances and who are showing renewed signs of activity in spite of such high official rebuff, will watch closely for a sign from Iowa.

HEAVY BETTING IN CHICAGO. Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Will Change Hands.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Chicago, April 5.—Two hundred thousand dollars will change hands on the municipal election Tuesday, according to a man in a position to know. Never before in a mayoralty contest has so much money been wagered in Chicago and never before have so many large bets been made. It is the first time in six or eight years at least that the Republicans have felt confident enough to risk their money in large amounts.

Of the entire $200,000, the odds will average so small as to make the wagering practically on even terms. There is a small advantage, perhaps, in favor of Harrison. Some of the betting fraternity say to-day that the odds on election day are likely to be ten to seven on Harrison, but general opinion is that the terms will be even except in special cases where odds will be given for political effect.

It is said that James O'Leary, the book-maker, has approximately $50,000 on Harrison. Of this, probably $20,000 was wagered even and the rest $30,000 on Harrison. He is credited with having up $20,000 on Harrison, the bulk of it even. He has $10,000 against $30,000.

O'Connor & Riechman have $30,000 on Stewart at even terms, with the exception of a few bets in which the long end is given to a Harrison admirer. Nearly all of this money was turned over by members of the Stock Exchange. There is more ready at this source.

Chapin & Gere hold bets aggregating $30,000, most of this money being placed even. Of the individual bettors, Chris Hanser, a well-known Republican politician, is said to have $5,000 on Stewart, even money, and J. J. Townsend, a broker, is accrued with a $5,000 bet of the same kind.

There have been rumors that John W.
Gater, John A. Drake and others of their class have placed large sums on Stewart, but this story is denied by men who are close to them. O'Leary does not believe they are interested.

It is expected the betting on election day will be the heaviest done during the entire campaign. There will be bright chances then for odds according as the atmosphere seems Stewart or Harrison in various quarters.

Nothing developed to-day to change the forecasts made yesterday on general results. There are as many theories as there are politicians, each one having considerable plausibility. The uncertainty of the outcome is indicated in the general character of the bets described.

STREET CARS IN COLLISION.
Passengers Shaken and Motorman J. H. Manhard's Ankle Sprained

Motorman J. H. Manhard of car No. 536 of the Jefferson avenue line sustained a sprained right ankle and the passengers on his car and on car No. 786 of the Spring avenue line were considerably jostled in a collision at Jefferson avenue and Gamble street at 6 o'clock last night.

The accident occurred when the Spring avenue car started across the tracks of the Jefferson avenue line, and the Jefferson car was in the way. Both cars were crowded. The rear platform of the Jefferson car was damaged about $25 and the other car about $15.

Vote in each ward for the name here selected. Vote for the Democratic Council ticket as a whole. In your ward the regular ticket will show one name for House of Delegates. If that name is not the one on The Republic's ticket, mark it off and write the name The Republic recommends.

Only one change is made in The Republic's ticket from the list as before published. The name of Timothy Maloney in the Sixteenth Ward has been added. That will make no difference in the result, as no candidate opposes Mr.
Maloney. But The Republic wishes to do full justice to every citizen who is a candidate for office.

Though apparently nominated under what are known as ward machine influences, Mr. Maloney, who is a young contractor, conducting an extensive business, is vouched for by a large number of the excellent citizens of the ward.
Some representative citizens pledge themselves positively to The Republic that Mr. Maloney can be relied upon to steadfastly support good government. The Republic is, therefore, glad to recommend him to his fellow-citizens.

MINISTER DECLARES CITY IS SHAMELESS

The Reverend Jeremiah C. Cromer Preaches Sermon on Christians Existing in St. Louis.

INDORSES MAGAZINE ARTICLE.

Declares if Christ Came to City Visit Would Not Be a Triumph Because of Character of Officials.

Taking his text from the Bible and reading extracts from an article in a recent number of McClure's Magazine by Lincoln J. Steffens, the Reverend Jeremiah C.
Cromer, in his sermon last night at Fountain Park Presbyterian Church, showed what he termed the "absolute and utter shamelessness of St. Louis."

The subject of his sermon was, "Is St.
Louis Preparing for a Triumphant Entry of Christ, or Is She Shameless?" The minister compared this city with Jerusalem of old, and declared that the same conditions prevail here as existed there more than 1900 years ago.
His summary was that Christ might visit St. Louis as he did Jerusalem, but that the character of this city's officials and influential persons would prevent, as did Jerusalem's scribes and Pharisees, his advent from accomplishing immediate good.
He said, in part:
"Christ could come to St. Louis to-day, and some of his followers would welcome him with palm branches and shouts of delight, but he would find that the men in authority, the persons who manipulate affairs, would rob his visit of its triumph.
The recent article in one of our magazines on 'The Shamelessness of St. Louis' has attracted worldwide attention, and caused our newspapers for a time to give forth feeble protests, but its assertions cannot be successfully disputed, because they are in every instance true. Much as we deplore it, we have been righteously accused."
"It is true that an election will take place this week, but what can the voter do? He is presented with absolutely no issue. We will go to the polls Tuesday and come away having accomplished nothing."
"Can it be expected that much could be accomplished, when most of the names on the tickets are those of saloonkeepers, un-pronounceable and unfamiliar, except those who gained notoriety in the last Assembly?"
"Let us remember that forty years after Jerusalem had refused to accept Christ the city was trampled in the dust under the foot of a Roman army."

CROW AND FOLK WILL WORK IN HARMONY

Attorney General Consults With the Circuit Attorney Regarding Legislative Boodling.

BOTH ENDS TO BE WORKED.

Two Officials Will Exchange Evidence and Assist in Trapping Members—Hickox Case of Great Importance.

Attorney General Crow and Circuit Attorney Folk held a long conference yesterday afternoon regarding the gathering of evidence for the investigation of legislative boodling. As a result, Mr. Folk next Thursday will begin the examination of witnesses who are thought to know something of the use of money, when the April Grand Jury begins its work.
That the two officials will work in harmony to unearth corruption in connection with the passage and defeat of legislation seems certain. During their consultation yesterday, each found that the other had secured much information which would be of use to the other. During the last year and a half Circuit Attorney Folk has run across evidence which, worked in connection with the Cole County Grand Jury, should bring indictments.
It is probable that allum will be taken up by Circuit Attorney Folk. Rumor says that most of the money which is alleged to have been used in connection with this subject changed hands in St. Louis. Two years ago a prominent official is said to have had more to do with the distribution of the cash than conforms with the generally accepted standards of official conduct.
The alleged distribution of money at a big downtown hotel shortly after the adjourning of this Assembly will be investigated fully. Just what this money was used for has been a subject of speculation by those who are familiar with the circumstances. Not only are Senators said to be involved, but members of the House. Circuit Attorney Folk probably will summon witnesses from over the State for the purposes of his investigation, just as Attorney General Crow is doing in Jefferson City.

Attorney General Crow will leave this morning for the capital, where he will prepare for the reconvening of the Cole County Grand Jury next Monday.
Undoubtedly, Hickox, if found guilty of contempt by Judge Hasell, will again appear to the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus.

SENATOR COCKRELL'S SON ELOPES WITH A WEBSTER GROVES GIRL.

Saturday Evening Dinner With Miss Hazel Hogan at a Downtown Cafe Results in Sudden Decision to Marry Sunday.

WHO SECURED THE SERVICES OF A FRIEND TO OBTAIN MARRIAGE LICENSE AND SER-VICES OF MINISTER AFTER A HASTY DECISION TO ELOPE.

Ephraim B. Cockrell of Warrensburg, Mo., son of United States Senator Francis Marion Cockrell, and Miss Hazel H. Hogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hogan of Webster Groves, eloped and were married at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert D. Yule, No.
1224 Academy avenue, to whom had been confided their plans.

The sudden decision to marry was reached at an evening dinner Saturday at a downtown cafe. Many difficulties were encountered in securing a marriage license and the services of a minister to perform the ceremony.
Through the aid of a friend, Sherman P.
Bristow of No. 3384-A Olive street, Mr. Cockrell succeeded in getting a marriage license at the home of the marriage-license clerk, and it was midnight when he secured the promise of the Reverend Doctor Gregg, pastor of the Compton and Washington Avenue Presbyterian Church, to perform the ceremony.

ENGAGED FIVE MONTHS.
The couple had been engaged five months.
Miss Hogan's parents requested that the wedding not take place for a year, owing to the age of their daughter, who is 19 years old. The bridegroom is 22 years old.
The young couple left the city immediately after the ceremony. Yesterday afternoon they notified their parents by telegraph of the wedding.

Mr. Cockrell has been in St. Louis for six months on business connected with the Missouri Plantation Company, of which he is president and general manager. He had planned to depart for Kansas City yesterday afternoon on his way to Mexico.

GIVES FAREWELL DINNER.
The bridegroom-to-be gave a farewell dinner at the Mercantile Club Saturday night. In the party were Miss Hogan and Mr. and Mrs. Yule. The latter has been married only a few months, and is a personal friend and girlhood chum of Miss Hogan.

Just before the party separated for the night, Mr. Cockrell and Miss Hogan decided it would be impossible for them to remain apart during the time he expected to be in Mexico. He had little difficulty in securing a promise to elope and be married before his departure.

It was then realized that it was Saturday night and the prospects for securing a license and the services of a minister were discouraging.

He communicated with Bristow, whom he had known during his residence in Washington, and summoned him to the clubrooms.
On his arrival at the Mercantile Club, Bristow was elected to procure a license and arrange for a minister to perform the ceremony at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.
He was instructed to report the success of his mission at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Yule, where Miss Hogan had arranged to spend the night in order to avoid the long trip to her home.

LICENSE IS SECURED.
Provided with a carriage and a city directory, Bristow undertook the difficult task.
He first drove to the residence of Patrick McDermott, marriage-license clerk, and after much persuasion succeeded in inducing Mr. McDermott to accompany him to the City Hall and issue a license.

This much accomplished, Bristow then started on a search for a minister. His first choice was the Reverend W. J. McKittick, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, as both Mr. Cockrell and Miss Hogan had professed a preference for a minister of that denomination.

Doctor McKittick stated that he did not perform marriage ceremonies on Sunday and refused to officiate, unless the parents of the bride and groom consented to the marriage.

Undaunted by this rebuff, Bristow determined to locate a minister of the Presbyterian faith who would perform the ceremony. If it took him the remainder of the night, he at last found the Reverend H.
H. Gregg, pastor of the Washington and Compton Avenue Presbyterian Church, who consented to officiate.

Bristow did not tell Doctor Gregg the names of the couple, and the latter was not aware, until he reached the Yule residence, that it was the daughter of an intimate friend whom he was to marry.

After arranging with Doctor Gregg to call for him at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning, Mr. Bristow drove to the Yule residence, where he acquainted Mr. Cockrell and Miss Hogan with the result of his long search. He then accompanied the prospective groom to the Southern Hotel, where they remained until time for the ceremony.

At 6 o'clock, Mr. Cockrell and Mr. Bristow drove to the West End Hotel and awoke Doctor Gregg. The minister then accompanied them to Mr. Yule's residence, where the ceremony was performed.

RING WAS FORGOTTEN.
Just before Doctor Gregg pronounced the words: "With this ring," it was discovered that in the hurry, incident to preparing for the ceremony, the wedding ring had been forgotten.

The groomsmen produced a ring that had been in his possession for several years.
It was a plain gold band, and although the initials did not correspond with those of the bride and bridegroom, it was pressed into service.

Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Yule and Mr. Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Cockrell drove to the Terminal Hotel, where a wedding breakfast was served.
The newly married couple then boarded a train for Kansas City, where they will remain two or three weeks. Mr. and Mrs.
Cockrell may stop in St. Louis, for a few days, on their way to New York. They will sail for Mexico about May 1.

Miss Hogan's father is well known in local insurance circles. He is the agency director of the Century branch of the New York Life Insurance Company.
Mr. Cockrell is the fourth son of United States Senator Cockrell, and has spent most of his time in Washington, D. C. He was well known there as an athlete during his school days.

About four years ago he went to Mexico, where he was connected with a plantation belonging to his brother. While there he learned the possibilities of the country and conceived the idea of forming a stock company.

PRESIDENT TWICE ATTENDED CHURCH

Mistake of Arrangement Committee Occasions Double Observance of Sunday.

TAKES REST AT SIOUX FALLS.

Horseback Ride With Seth Bullock in Afternoon—Pickpocket in Crowd in Front of Church Created Disturbance.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 5.—President Roosevelt is the guest of Sioux Falls, and will remain so until 9:10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

His special train arrived here about 1 o'clock this morning, and he was met by a delegation headed by Mayor G. W. Burnside and State Senator A. H. Sittes. Senator Kittredge also greeted him.

The President was escorted to the Cataract House by detachments of the two militia companies here and enjoyed a day of comparative rest, the first he has had since his trip began.

He attended church both in the morning and evening, and in the afternoon went for a horseback ride, accompanied by Seth Bullock, Superintendent of the Black Hills Forest Reserves.

The fact that President Roosevelt attended divine services twice to-day was due to a mistake on the part of the local committee, which had the impression that the President was in the evening at the German Lutheran Church, and accordingly arranged to have him attend that church this morning.

Later, when it was learned that the President worshiped at the Dutch Reform Church, arrangements were made to have services held in the evening at the Livingstone Reform Church here.

While it is not the custom of the President to attend services on Sunday evening, he consented to make an exception to his rule to-day, when the facts were presented to him.

The services this morning were conducted by the Reverend Herman Sell, president of the German-English College at Welton, Ia., who came here for that purpose. The German language was used throughout.

Owing to the fact that both in Milwaukee and Minneapolis the length of the programme did not permit the President to reach his car until after midnight, he has been obliged to announce that hereafter he will, in the evening, not begin speaking later than 9:30 o'clock and always will depart in his car by 10 o'clock. He will adhere strictly to this rule.

A pickpocket tried to work his game in the crowd gathered in front of the Lutheran Church this morning.

Just as the President was about to enter the office a man who gave his name as G. W. Earl abstracted $25 from the pocket of A. Dockstader, a resident of this city.

He was detected in the act, but before he could be asked he handed the money to a confederate, who disappeared. Earl was arrested.

B. P. BROWN IS ARRESTED.

Made Threatening Allusions to President Roosevelt.

San Bernardino, Cal., April 5.—B. P.
Brown of Redlands, who was arrested just before the last visit of President McKinley under instructions from Governor Gage, who was informed that he had made threats against the President, is again in the county jail, having been taken into custody at Redlands last night on a similar charge.

He was overheard making threatening allusions to President Roosevelt.

It is stated that ever since the President announced his intention of visiting the county, Brown has been closely watched and his arrest was decided upon as a measure of precaution. He is charged with vagrancy.

AMERICAN MARINES PROTECTED CONSULATE.

Situation at Santo Domingo Is Very Critical—City Fortified and Determined to Resist.

Washington, April 5.—A report to the Navy Department from Commander Turner of the cruiser Atlanta, at Santo Domingo City, shows another repulse to the Government troops, who made an attempt to take the city from the revolutionists.

Commander Turner was again compelled to land the bluejackets to protect the United States Consulate.

Commander Turner's dispatch is as follows:
"Santo Domingo, via Hayti, April 5.—The Government forces attacked the city yesterday; an error was required."
"Reports indicate that Vasquez, the President, is approaching with a strong force.
The Government gunboat fired three shots last night without injury."

"The city is fortified and apparently determined to resist. Landed Marines to protect the consulate."
"One day last week Commander Turner headed a force of fifty marines to guard the United States Consulate at Santo Domingo City, when the situation was regarded as very critical."

CARDINAL GIBBONS BETTER.

He Was Able to Resume the Pulpit Yesterday.

Baltimore, April 5.—Cardinal Gibbons, who had been confined to his room with a severe cold for several days, was so much improved to-day that he was physically able to deliver a sermon at the Cathedral. His Eminence's voice was not strong, but he was listened to by an audience that filled the edifice. His sermon was upon the value of ceremonies to religious worship.
His Eminence was compelled to break an engagement which had been previously made to address the boys at St. James's Home this afternoon. His physician thought it unwise for the prelate to leave the house after the delivery of his sermon.

YOUNG GIRL BULL FIGHTERS.

Five Senoritas Charge Beasts Skillfully as Men.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

El Paso, Tex., April 5.—Five beautiful young senoritas from Spain appeared in the bull-fighting arena across the Rio Grande this afternoon. They comprise the only female bull fighters in the world.

Thousands of persons from all along the border attended the bloody contest. The girls ran at full speed, and drove the sword into the charging wild bulls as skillfully as any male matadors.
